GOING ASHORE

ASL SCENARIO JW3

Victory Conditions: The German player receives VP's for units exited through hex BIL and for Bassian Units eliminated. $24 - German victory; $219 - Bussian victory. Any other result is a draw Mear the Bug River, 22 June 1941: The surprise invasion of the USSR had begun. Many of the Northern Soviet lines were easily forced. Matters were much different in the South where the German 6th Army was encountering better organized defenses. Moreover, a river crossing was in order, and the NKVD Border Guards were waiting on the other side.

MAPBOARD CONFIGURATION:

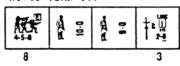

BALANCE:

- ★ The game lasts 6 turns.
- Russian SAN is 4.

★ The Russian Sets up First	4	0	2	1	5	G	7	ETS:
The German Moves First	1	2	3	4	၁	O	. 1	FIIN

Elements of the 128th NKVD Regiment [ELR 3]. Set up East of the River (SAN 5].

Assault Kampfgruppe [ELR 4]. Set up West of the river [SAN 2]. All boats are beached and may be loaded to full capacity.

SPECIAL RULES:

- 1. EC are Moderate with no wind at start.
- 2. There is a slow current to the south.
- 3. At the beginning of every RPh, the Russian must make a dr, if the result is (the current turn number, all Russian units suffer amountion shortage for the duration of the scenario
- 4. Only bexrows A P are playable.
- Soviet units exited off the east edge are not considered eliminated for YP purposes.
- Prior to Russian set up, the German player may predesignate 2 heres in which he may place dispersed SMOIE during the PPPh of German turn 1.

AFTERRATE: The German assault boats dashed across the Buq, which was a mere hundred meters wide in this area. Most of the boats reached the far shore untouched, due mostly to a thin smote screen laid down by some distant German guns. Once ashore, however, the MEVD fought relentlessly using rifles, grenades, and LNG's. Finally, with aumo cumping short, and more German tropps across the river farther south, the NEVD detacthment withdrew, leaving the crossing in German hands.